Undergraduate Certification
PROJECT MANAGEMENT:

Certification Overview

The Certification in Project Management offers students a comprehensive review of project management concepts and techniques from an introductory level. After the successful completion of the four courses, students will not only have mastered competencies required for project management within organizations, but will also have completed 12 hours of college credit toward a degree. This certification may be completed online and in conjunction with the University's seven undergraduate degrees.

Courses Required

MGT4501	Project Scope & Quality Management	3 Hours
MGT4502	Project Cost & Contract Procurement Management	3 Hours
MGT4503	Project Risk & Schedule Management	3 Hours
MGT4504	Project Stakehodler & Communication Management	3 Hours