Interested in Financial Aid?

Amberton University offers Private Education Loans as well as Federal Aid options. The current 2025-2026 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) is available and must be completed to determine eligibility for the current Summer 2025 session for Federal Aid through the Department of Education's Title IV Federal Student Aid programs. The FAFSA can be completed online at StudentAid.gov, placing Amberton as a school of choice (our School Code is 014925). For those who obtain a Federal Direct Loan at Amberton for the first time will visit StudentAid.gov to complete the MPN and Entrance Counseling.

Upon notification from FSA of a completed FAFSA, Amberton Financial Aid Office will email the student an eligibility status letter and if applicable a COA, Cost of Attendance, meeting the FSA requirements.

Ensure to visit the Financial Aid Handbook for more details and student responsibilities. Please reach out to our Financial Aid department at FinAid@Amberton.edu or (972) 279-6511 ext 173, for details.

Course Rotation

Please find below a link to Amberton's Course Rotation. # Professional Licensure Statement

Marriage and Family Therapy

The purpose of the Master of Arts degree in Marriage and Family Therapy is to provide the graduate with a comprehensive knowledge of the functional areas of marriage and family counseling including but not limited to the nature of the counseling profession and an understanding of life span development, as well as cognitive knowledge of counseling theories, concepts and principles of concern to the counseling professional. The program can be completed through on-campus attendance as well as a mix of on-campus and on-line courses. It cannot be completed 100% on-line. Students who complete the Amberton University Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy meet the academic requirements for becoming a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in the State of Texas. Students should carefully review the current state requirements for changes and updates. The Texas State Board of Examiners of Marriage and Family Therapists provides clear guidelines and requirements to apply for a new licensure. Questions regarding licensure should be directed to the Texas State Board of Examiners of Marriage and Family Therapists, <https://www.bhec.texas.gov/texas-state-board-of-examiners-of-marriage-and-family-therapists/index.html>. No determination has been made as to whether or not this degree meets requirements in any other state besides Texas.

School Counseling

The Master of Arts in School Counseling prepares students to satisfy academic requirements for the Professional School Counseling Certification in the State of Texas. Admission to this program is available only to those students who satisfy the Program Admission Requirements. The program is comprised of 48 graduate hours and includes a minimum of 160 practicum hours. Students completing this degree and passing the TExES examination for School Counseling are eligible for employment as a school counselor in an educational setting. Graduates will be counselors, academic advisors and advocates who create conditions of academic achievement for children in public and private schools. The program can be completed through on-campus attendance as well as a mix of on-campus and on-line courses. It cannot be completed 100% on-line. Students should carefully review the current Texas Education Agency (TEA) requirements for changes and updates. TEA provides clear guidelines and requirements for certification. For more information, visit <https://tea.texas.gov/texas-educators/certification/additional-certifications/student-services-certificates>. No determination has been made as to whether or not this degree meets licensure requirements in any other state besides Texas.

Clinical Mental Health Counseling (Formerly Professional Counseling)

The purpose of the Master of Arts degree in Marriage and Family Therapy is to provide the graduate with a comprehensive knowledge of the functional areas of marriage and family counseling including but not limited to the nature of the counseling profession and an understanding of life span development, as well as cognitive knowledge of counseling theories, concepts and principles of concern to the counseling professional. ## Accounting Degree

Requirements for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license vary by state and involve more than successful degree completion. Candidates for licensure need to satisfy other requirements, including but not limited to completing an application, paying a fee, passing licensure exams, and work experience.

The BBA/MBA Accounting degree meets the education requirements of the Texas State Board of Accountancy Public necessary to register for the Certified Public Accountant examination. The 150-credit hour dual program can be completed 100% online. Students who complete the Amberton University Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting AND Master of Business Administration in Accounting meet the education requirements for becoming a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Texas. However, each student should carefully review the current state requirements of the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy for changes and updates. The Texas State Board of Public Accountancy provides clear guidelines and requirements to take the CPA exam and in applying for a new licensure. It is the sole responsibility of each student to satisfy each of the requirements of the State of Texas. Questions regarding licensure should be directed to the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy. <http://www.tsbpa.state.tx.us/exam-qualification/examination-overview.html>. No determination has been made as to whether or not this degree meets licensure requirements in any other state besides Texas.
