

BACHELOR of SCIENCE

HUMAN RELATIONS AND BUSINESS

Program Overview

The Bachelor of Science in Human Relations and Business provides an interdisciplinary degree that balances business administration skills with effective communication and human relations abilities. The broad-based curriculum includes studies in the areas of business, human behavior, and communication. Students who graduate with this degree are prepared for a wide range of careers requiring human relations and business acumen along with communication proficiency. The mission of the Bachelor of Science in Human Relations and Business program is to help students develop communication and human relations skills applicable to business, explore methods of improving interpersonal relationships in organizations, and acquire business acumen to help them succeed in their professional lives. The program is offered through a combination of on-campus and online courses or 100% online.
